
Democratic relations in everyday life form the roots of a democratic society.

Local Democracy is:

- an expression of building community
- ensuring people are not left behind
- practicing the skills of equality
- peaceful coexistence
- challenging hierarchy and affirming equality

A 14-week course starting in the Fall of 2011

This course offers an opportunity to reflect on both positive and negative democratic practices in:

- workplaces
- schools
- public agencies
- community organizations
- social services
- civic initiatives
