Green Door Arts Space

The Green Door Arts Space provides opportunities for volunteers to learn the skills of sewing, soap making, screen-printing and other crafts. Experienced volunteers share their skills with others as we re-purpose donated clothing into useful and creative crafts in a community where all are welcome

Sewing Class - On Tuesday mornings our instructor can help you with your project
Drop-In Sewing - Our sewing space is open for you to use or help us with sewing projects for the Green Door

Crafting - Come and create with us, the activity varies from week to week, soap making, screen-printing, card making or packaging

MCRS Sewing Group

The Mennonite Coalition for Refugee Support (MCRS) Sewing Group provides an opportunity for refugee claimant women to come together to sew, meet new friends, share their stories and develop their English skills in a non-judgmental and welcoming environment. For more information please call 519-571-1912

Stride

The Stride Program of Community Justice Initiatives assists women serving a federal prison sentence to make the difficult, often traumatic transition from prison into the community by engaging and involving community volunteers. For more information please call CJI at 519-744-6549 or visit their website at www.cjiwr.com

Hope Studio

A Waterloo Mennonite Brethren (WMB) Church drop-in art program welcomes community members of all backgrounds create art together in community with professional artists who are also WMB volunteers

Spark of Brilliance

A program of the Self Help Alliance, operated by CMHA, is a community-based mental health initiative that promotes healing, recovery and discovery through the expressive arts. For more information contact info@sparkofbrilliance.org
